TAA NSW WELCOMES NEW TOURISM MINISTER

The state's peak accommodation body, Tourism Accommodation Australia (TAA) NSW has welcomed the appointment of Penrith MP Stuart Ayres as the state's new Tourism Minister.

TAA NSW Acting CEO Dr Adele Lausberg said the Association looked forward to again working closely with Mr Ayres.

"Stuart Ayres has long been a highly respected member of the Cabinet and, of course, is very familiar with the tourism portfolio having previously been a NSW Trade, Tourism and Major Events Minister," she said.

"On behalf of our members I welcome him to his new position as Minister for Jobs, Investment, Tourism and Western Sydney – we look forward to working with him to benefit the tourism sector."

Dr Lausberg also paid tribute to outgoing Tourism and Major Events Minister Adam Marshall.

"Minister Marshall had a great understanding of the tourism and accommodation industry and I would like to thank him for his efforts to improve the tourism experience in both metropolitan and regional NSW," she said.
